9. CODES OF CONDUCT

- 9.1 Sporting excellence and enjoyment are only achieved by participants and spectators through adherence to the highest moral, ethical and sporting standards.
- 9.2 SASN's Codes of Conduct set out the standards and expectations expected of those in the sport of netball, and these promote respect, good sportsmanship, high standards of behaviour, integrity and ethics. All Members, players, parents and spectators are expected and required to abide by these Codes. In addition, all member structures should ensure that the Codes are well known and promoted so that there is a culture of respect and a discrimination-free environment for all to enjoy the sport.
- 9.3 The work of the SASN is based on the following principles and core values that will guide the development of Netball as a sport for young players:

9.3.1 Young People's experience of sport should be guided by what is best for the young person. The stages of development and the ability of the young person should guide the types of activity provided within the group. Adults will need to have a basic understanding of the needs of young people, including physical, emotional and personal.

9.3.2 Integrity in relationships - adults interacting with young people in sport should do so with integrity and respect for the child. There is a danger that sporting contexts can be used to exploit or undermine children. All adult actions in sport should be guided by what is best for the child and in the context of quality, open working relationships. Verbal, physical, emotional, or sexual abuse of any kind is unacceptable and illegal within the context of the Children's Act and the Constitution of South Africa within the sport.

9.3.3 Quality atmosphere and ethos - the sport for young people should be conducted in a safe, positive, and encouraging atmosphere. A child-centred ethos will help to ensure that competition and specialisation are kept in their appropriate place.

9.3.4 Equality - All children should be treated equitably and fairly regardless of age, ability, sex, religion, social and ethnic background or political persuasion. Children with disabilities and learning barriers should be involved in sports activities in an integrated way, thus allowing them to participate to their potential alongside other children.

9.3.5 Fair Play - fair play is the guiding principle of ethics and good practice for Netball as a sport. All children's sport should be conducted in an atmosphere of fair play. It incorporates the concepts of friendship, respect for others and always playing with the right spirit. Fair play is defined as a way of thinking, not just behaving. It incorporates issues concerned with the elimination of opportunities, excessive commercialisation and corruption.

9.3.6 Competition – a balanced approach to competition can make a significant contribution to the development of young people, while at the same time providing fun, enjoyment and satisfaction. However, often competitive demands are placed on children too early, which results in excessive levels of pressure on them. This can contribute to a high level of dropout from the sport. Leaders in the sport in SASN should aim to put the welfare of the child first and competitive standards second. A child-centred approach will help to ensure that competition and specialisation are kept in their appropriate place.

9.4 The Codes of Conduct has at its heart SASN's commitment to:

- a. integrity;
- b. service to the youth of our country
- c. the development of sport amongst our youth by empowering them in the game of netball, through education, training and the development of skills, and specifically to promote the development of excellence in playing;
- d. emphasise the role of sport in promoting harmonious and cultural relations;
- e. camaraderie and fellowship amongst all South Africans; and
- f. accountability where it is applicable, to SASN's constituents and stakeholders, the youth, their parents, sponsors and donors; and

- g. to promote integrity and a high standard of ethics by establishing and maintaining an efficient administration to control, regulate and direct the affairs of SASN and the sport of Netball, and foster good governance through the area and provincial structures;
- h. to promote the safeguarding and welfare of all participants in netball;
- i. the right to enjoy the competitive sport in a safe and orderly environment; and
- j. the right to be treated courteously and respectfully.

9.5 Within this spirit of co-operation, the above-mentioned principles and rights are recognised by and for all in SASN. Persons who, by their conduct and/or attitudes, do not acknowledge or are unwilling to acknowledge that the rights are accompanied by responsibilities, will be unable to enjoy them.

9.6 COACHES' CODE OF CONDUCT

- 9.6.1 Remember that children participate for pleasure and that winning is only part of the fun.

- 9.12.12 The EXCO shall appoint an independent Disciplinary Committee which is for all intents and purposes an administrative tribunal to hear a charge or a report of alleged misconduct by a player, coach, SASN member structure or official, umpire or any parent/guardian.

BY-LAWS AND SASN GUIDELINES ON SAFETY AND SAFEGUARDING ISSUES REGARDING MINORS/PLAYERS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 In the sport of Netball just as in other sporting codes, the balance of power lies in the hands of those who manage and run the sporting programmes.
- 1.2 The adults in charge” have a responsibility to ensure the safety and wellbeing of participants.
- 1.3 While, it could be said that there is a reluctance to say that every adult who coaches or manages a sporting code in sport is vulnerable, when someone is in a team or on a pathway vulnerability inevitably increases, as so much is taken out of their control.
- 1.4 These Safeguarding guidelines and rules represent collective good practice at a point in time and will be subject to periodic review to ensure they reflect developments within safeguarding practice in the sport of Netball and safeguarding minors who participate in Netball as a sport affiliated to SASN.

2. SAFEGUARDING AS AN ISSUE AND SPEAKING OUT AND ACTING AGAINST ABUSE IN SPORT

- 2.1 When individuals participate in a sport they often:
 - a. Have a coach, instructor or mentor; someone they admire and respect;
 - b. Develop a sense of belonging from being part of a team;
 - c. Train and change in close proximity.
- 2.2 The factors listed above most of the time, make it difficult for participants to speak out against abuse to which they have been subjected to. It is also difficult to avoid the perpetrators who are respected individuals such as coaches and officials or close teammates.
- 2.3 Effective measures will safeguard everyone in the sport, from participants through to coaches and organisational management. The benefits of having effective measures in place are relevant for all that participate in sport and include:
 - a. Participants will know how to report a concern.
 - b. Coaches will be protected against false allegations.
 - c. Participants and coaches will know how to access support structures and the Safeguarding officers of SASN.
 - d. EXCO will know how to respond
 - e. Everyone will know or ought to know then what is and is not acceptable conduct.

3. SASN’S SAFEGUARDS

- 3.1 SASN’s Safeguards are based on the following principles:
 - a. All children have the right to participate, enjoy and develop through sport, in a safe and inclusive environment, free from all forms of abuse, violence, neglect and exploitation.

- b. Children have the right to have their voices heard and listened to. They need to know who they can turn to when they have a concern about their participation in sport.
- c. Everyone, in SASN, has a responsibility to support the care and protection of young people.
- d. All in SASN and its structures have a duty of care to children and young persons.
- e. Certain factors leave some children more vulnerable to abuse, and steps have to be taken to address this.
- f. SASN and its structures should always act in the best interests of the child or young adult players.
- g. All adults and children in SASN and its structures must know that children have a right to be protected from all types of harm and that the adults have a responsibility to reduce the likelihood of harm occurring.

4. SAFEGUARDING IN A PEER-TO-PEER SITUATION

- 4.1 In a peer-to-peer situation unfortunately it is commonly accepted that children can be excessively mean to each other; that children will laugh and make fun of other children. These behavioural patterns result in harm and are often referred to as bullying/harassment /intimidation and victimisation and also includes physical and emotional abuse.
- 4.2 Bullying comes in many forms and can present itself in sport as:
 - a. Taunting other participants about skills or clothing or social issues.
 - b. Excluding or not wanting to be on the same team as an individual.
 - c. Discriminating based on gender, sexual orientation, religion, race, etc.
- 4.3 Coaches, umpires and SASN participants active in netball as a sport and development shall ensure that actions that could be described as bullying and/or harassment are not ignored.
- 4.4 Proactively acting upon such behaviour will set the stage for good conduct and will make all players feel emotionally and physically safe to participate and gain from the positive benefits Netball as a sport has to offer.

5. DOPING AND USE OF DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS

- 5.1 Doping within sport such as Netball is also a child protection issue for young players but one aspect that gets little attention.
- 5.2 One of the priorities of SASN is to identify high-risk participants and situations and proactively work to educate these groups including parents and coaches at all levels through member structures and schools.
- 5.3 The number of dietary supplements available on the market that are promoted as performance improving and enhancing is increasing.
- 5.4 Education is required for participants about what is useful and safe, along with information about nutritional support and supplementation.

6. MATTERS OF CONFIDENTIALITY IN TERMS OF POPIA AND THE CHILDREN'S ACT

- 6.1 Confidentiality - Safe to the extent that disclosure and/or publication is provided for in accordance with POPIA and the Children's Act and the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, the Constitution of SASN and this By-Laws or otherwise in accordance with any other law, all matters considered involving any personal information of a minor, will be regarded as confidential and used only for the purposes of the Safeguarding of Children and Disciplinary procedures of SASN.

- 1.2 SASN is governed by a Constitution and by-laws and its members and managed by a centralised executive committee of elected members.
- 1.3 SASN's stakeholders (data subjects) consist of member schools, referees, coaches, parents, players (children), sponsors and service suppliers.

- 1.5 This document constitutes the South African School's Netball POPIA Policy stating our commitment to comply with the POPI Act when collecting, processing, storing and protecting stakeholder's personal information. In doing this, SASN applies the eight information protection principles that govern the processing of PI:

 - f. Openness – SASN ensures that data subjects are fully informed about how SASN uses the PI before data subjects consent to its collection and processing.
 - g. Security safeguards are put in place to ensure that data is not lost, damaged, destroyed or accessed without authorisation.
 - h. SASN facilitates data subjects' participation in accessing and correcting their PI.
- 1.6 The registered Information Officer, who is the person responsible for compliance with the conditions for the lawful processing of PI and dealing with any matters relating to the POPI Act, is the Chairperson or an officeholder designated by the Executive Committee.
